

AbbyPD Issues Public Notification for Two BC Gang Conflict Members

Background:

In late 2022, the Abbotsford Police Department's Drug Enforcement Unit initiated a large-scale drug trafficking investigation focusing on the activities of two Abbotsford residents, Anmol SANDHU and Navpreet DHALIWAL. Both men are connected to the ongoing BC Gang Conflict and present a significant public safety risk.

During the investigation, multiple search warrants were executed at several residences in Abbotsford and Surrey, resulting in almost six kilograms of fentanyl, two kilograms of cocaine, heroin, methamphetamine, morphine, large amounts of cash and firearms being seized.

As a result of additional evidence being obtained during the drug investigation, the Abbotsford Police Major Crime Unit initiated "Project High Table," focusing on Anmol SANDHU and Navpreet DHALIWAL as investigators believed they were conspiring to commit murder.

On February 21st, 2024, Anmol SANDHU and Navpreet DHALIWAL were arrested and charged with two counts of Conspiracy to Commit Murder and remanded into custody. Further charges of Trafficking a Controlled Substance and Firearms offences have also been laid.

Public Notification:

On July 31st, 2024, the Abbotsford Police Department were notified that Anmol SANDHU and Navpreet DHALIWAL were released from custody on Bail until trial. They will be residing within west Abbotsford.

The Abbotsford Police Department recognizes the public safety risk these two men present and is issuing this public notification to keep the public informed.

Anmol SANDHU

Navpreet DHALIWAL

Anmol SANDHU and Navpreet DHALIWAL have been provided with a series of court-imposed bail conditions that consist of:
